

Poem [Elena Delle Donne has a herniated disk]

Elena Delle Donne has a herniated disk.
I had just been to the lab.
She was from Fire Mountain
The woman who took my blood.
I wanted to get a little something
At the patisserie with the best buns in town
Before going back to the office.
There were power train billionaires,
TV execs and architects,
And suddenly this appears on my feed
ELENA DELLE DONNE HAS A HERNIATED DISK.
I've played hoops.
I've been pushed hard under the basket.
I've twisted funny.
I've had plenty of back pain.
But I've never actually had a herniated disk.
Oh Elena Delle Donne we love you get well soon.
